

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:46; sunset, 5:34.

Body of red-haired man found in river at Franklin st.

Florenz Lauder, 2914 W. 22d, arrested on charge of stealing three watches from Nathan Vogel, jeweler.

James Mason, 713 North av., held to grand jury on auto-stealing charge.

Wm. Gosko, 2, 883 Erie, overturned boiling water kettle. Scalded to death.

Mrs. Mary W. Grenier, Oak Park, obtained divorce, $3,440 cash, alimony $100 month for first eight years, and $85 a month after that. Intoxication charge.

Jos. Csabal, foreman Burnside shops, I. C. road, sued for $25,000 by Julia Miczinako. Alleged breach of promise.

Dr. John P. Furno sued for divorce by Mrs. Violet Furno. Infidelity charge.

Henry Lawrence, 15, 737 N. LaSalle, arrested on charge of passing bad checks.

Thos. H. Logan, dentist, sued for divorce by Blanche Logan. Infidelity charge.

Thos. B. Novotny, private banker, missing.

Leopold A. S. Woods wants divorce from Phyllis L. R. Woods on drunkenness charge. Says child born to her is not his.

Frank Sadowski, 3427 Union av., and four others hurt when auto turned turtle.

Christopher N. Rooney, druggist, arrested in Cleveland on bigamy charge.

Four piano movers hurt when piano got away from them at 6146 Evans av.

Arthur J. Ross, West Side hotel owner, sued for separate maintenance by Minnie Rose. Cruelty charged.

North roadway, Madison st. bridge, closed to traffic tomorrow.

August W. Miller, sup't of streets, will not quit job for campaign for circuit court clerk.

Armed posse of Wilmington, Ill., searching woods for assailant of Alice Davey, school teacher.

Julian Radzikewicz refuses to admit he killed Jos. Siviencicki, 8681 Manistee av., who had tried to steal his wife.

Police probing death of Mrs. Ellen Jackson, 27, 3716 Langley av.

Washington park fishing season opens tomorrow.

When Geo. W. Lowrey, Morrison hotel, left for California he left dog, "Foxy," behind. Foxy grieved and then committed suicide by leap from hotel roof.

Frank Warde, former cashier Scovill Mfg. Co., 224 W. Lake, wanted on embezzlement charge, caught in Marshalltown, Ia. $1,000 shortage uncovered.

Mary Burns, maid in home of L. A. Crowell, Evanston, missing.

Leroy Sonnenschein, 26, 849 Barry av., suicide. Gas. Wife left him.

Fourteen persons reported missing. Aldermen inherit jobs from their fathers, said one applicant for citizenship papers yesterday.

Thos. Piccara, wealthy N. Y. importer, arrested here in connection with black hand murder in N. Y.

Only 14 new cases of infant plague reported this week.

Dr. Wm. K. McLaughlin, 2715 Michigan av., hurt by street car.

Dr. Jas. Stuart Ainslee, founder of North Shore Congregational church, has returned to Chicago to found a new church.

Evanston school children to fight moths.

Edgar Hettinger, 19, sentenced to death for murder of Mrs. Agnes Middleton.

Edward Stevens, 8, 4432 N. Lemon, killed by train.

Bishop C. P. Anderson wants data on case involving Rev. R. H. F.